Senators Lose, Cards, Redlegs Take Victories

By JIM BECKER
Associated Press Sports Writer

On the strength of his first night on the job, Gil Hodges appears to be in no danger of having to leave the country.

Hodges, moving from cellar to cellar, took over as manager of the last place Senators Thursday night, shifting from the New York Mets who occupy a similar position in the National League.

Before the game, the appointment came up for discussion on Capitol Hill, where one congressman said if Hodges can do anything with the slumping Senators he will be just the man to take over the U.S. foreign aid program.

Gil seems to be safe at home for a while. The Senators responded to new leadership by rolling over quietly before Robin Roberts and the Baltimore Orioles, 6-0, for their 11th loss in their last 12 games.

Roberts held the Senators to two hits, both by shortstop Ed Brinkman, and didn't walk a man as he pitched his third straight complete victory. The 36-year-old right-hander lost his first four this season.

The other two games on the slim baseball card also produce shutouts, both in the National League.

The St. Louis Cardinals moved back into third place with a 1-0 victory over the Chicago Cubs, and the Cincinnati Reds defeated the Milwaukee Braves 2-0.

Ernie Broglio, the Cardinal ace, ran his record to 5-1 with a five-hitter. Lefty Dick Ellsworth, who allowed only four hits in seven innings, was the Cub victim. Catcher Gene Oliver's homer in the fifth accounted for the only run.

Jim O'Toole won his seventh against three losses on a three-hitter against the Braves. Denny Lemaster, the loser, threw a four-hitter. The Reds scored in the fourth on an error and a pop double by Daryl Spencer. They added a run in the ninth on another error, a stolen base and a single by Ken Walters.

Dodgers and Giants in a Key Series

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — National League pennant favorites Los Angeles and San Francisco, already pulling away from the rest of the field, open a three-game series tonight that draws memories from 1962.

The Giants, thanks to a faster start, hold a one game edge over Los Angeles. But the Dodgers have won eight straight and 11 of 12 games in a bid for the lead. Third-place St. Louis is 4½ games back.

Two weeks ago, the Dodgers swept a three-game set from the Giants in their first meeting since San Francisco won the 1962 Pennant playoff.

Sandy Koufax, 6-1, who no-hit the Giants 8-0 May 11, pitches tonight against Juan Marchal, 5-3, who was 3-1 against the Dodgers last year.

Billy O'Dell will face Los Angeles' Johnny Podres Saturday and the Giants' Jack Sanford meets Don Drysdale Sunday.

The Giants are hoping they'll bounce back from the shellacking in Los Angeles just as they did last year.

Los Angeles won three straight at home in late July 1962 but the Giants reopened the pennant race in mid-August with three straight over the Dodgers at Candlestick Park.

That was the "Malibu Beach" series, where the Dodgers accused Giants groundskeepers of flooding and sanding the infield to slow the Los Angeles base stealers.

Groundskeeper Matty Schwab insists he has no tricks up his sleeve this year and will water the field just enough to keep the dust down.

There were no International League games scheduled Thursday.

The Travelers' defeat of the Phillies marked their first victory in the last six outings and ended an unsuccessful road trip.

Don Demeter hit a homer for the Phillies.

Piersall Goes to Mets in Trading Flurry

By MIKE RATHET
Associated Press Sports Writer

It wasn't an even exchange, but the New York Mets got Jim Piersall and the Washington Senators wound up with John F. Kennedy.

Completing a quick doubleplay without a fumble—the Senators fired the controversial Piersall over to the Mets Thursday in what appeared to be the conclusion of the deal in which Gil Hodges took over as Washington manager.

Hodges, of course, lost a ball-player before he even got started with his new club, but the Senators gave him three in return by latching onto pitcher Pete Burnside, outfielder Barry Shetrone and an infielder name of John F. Kennedy.

In another trade, Pittsburgh acquired Jerry Lynch, pinch hitter deluxe with the home run touch, from Cincinnati in a straight player deal that sent outfielder Bob Skinner to the Reds.

The Kansas City Athletics shipped outfielders Manny Jimenez, who hit .301 as a rookie last year and Jose Tartabull to Portland while elevating Hector Martinez and John Wojcik from their Pacific Coast League farm club.

Piersall figures to be a fixture in the Mets' center field and fits Manager Casey Stengel's description of "my type of player."

Piersall expressed little surprise at the deal. "I've been in baseball 16 years. You never know what's going to happen," he said. "I'm happy to go play for Stengel. He was my biggest booster when I was a rookie. He made the compliments on my fielding that caused people to begin to notice me."

To get Piersall, the Mets also sent along a bundle of cash and will ship a player to be named later to the Senators.

After completing the Piersall deal the Senators optioned pitcher Art Quirk, called up Shetrone from their Columbus team in the International League, signed free agent Burnside and elevated Kennedy, a youngster with the famous name who last year broke in by hitting a homer in his first at-bat in the majors.

The Lynch-Skinner transaction likely will have considerable bearing on the pennant races. The Pirates pick up a slugger in Lynch and the Reds round out a top outfield with Skinner joining Vada Pinson and Frank Robinson.

The U.S. forces grabbed a 2-1 edge in the morning foursome play, in which team partners alternate shots, but Joe Carr and Stuart Murray won their singles to pull the Britons even.

Carr defeated Dick Sikes of Springdale, Ark., 7 and 5, and Murray beat Deane Beman of Bethesda, Md., 3 and 1. The first U.S. point in the singles was posted by Billy Joe Patton of Morganton, N.C., who downed Martin Christmas, 3-2.

The Americans never trailed in the morning round.

British in Win Over U.S. Golfers

TURNBERRY, Scotland (AP)—Great Britain's amateur golfers won two of the first three singles matches decided this afternoon and pulled into a surprising, temporary deadlock at 3-all in the first day's play of the Walker Cup competition. Five singles still are not completed.

Mobile Courts Death on Wheels

MIAMI, Fla. (AP)—Officially, they are "mobile courts" but the Cuban people call them "death on wheels."

This new type of court is taken by truck to spots where anti-Castroes are caught, and usually decrees death, Dr. Hector Carrio, a lawyer who recently fled Cuba, said today.

Comprising the courts, Carrio said, are five men named by Fidel Castro's militia and usually without legal knowledge.

"After a short procedure, they carry out the penalty asked by the prosecutor who always is a Communist lawyer," said Carrio.

Bunched in the lead with Nicklaus were Jerry Edwards of Fort Worth, Buster Cupit of Fort Smith, Ark., Fred Hawkins of El Paso, Dick Mayer of Palm Desert, Calif., Cary Middlecoff of Memphis, Johnny Pot of Gulf Hills, Miss., and Tony Lema of San Leandro, Calif.

Score Jam May Crack at Memphis

By DON MCLEOD

MEMPHIS, Tenn. (AP)—With rising temperatures promising to aid scores, a breakup was expected today in the log jam at the head of the $50,000 Memphis Open golf tournament.

Eight pros took the first round lead Thursday with three under par 67s over the 6,501-yard, par 34-36-70 Colonial Country Club course.

Jack Nicklaus, the tour's leading money winner, put on the best show among early leaders with a hole-in-one on the short, par three third hole.

U.S. Contracts Data Outlined

LITTLE ROCK (AP)—Qualifications for obtaining federal defense contracts were outlined to small businessmen Thursday by officials of the Martin-Marietta Corp., and the Small Business Administration.

The forum meeting, one of 16 held thus far by Martin throughout the nation, was held for several dozen Arkansas businessmen interested in building the state's share of defense work.

Martin officials met individually with businessmen who were interested in subcontracts. Officials of the SBA outlined how businessmen would work with that agency, local liaison officers and the Martin Co. to obtain contracts.

N. E. Hollands, procurement manager for Martin, said communities seeking defense industries must have intelligent land planning for sites, full facilities, proper tax offerings, good schools and effective civic committees.

New Leaders Take Over in Birmingham

By DON MCKEE

BIRMINGHAM, Ala. (AP)—Progressive leadership in this sprawling steel city's racial troubles has been pledged by a new government which also must grapple with serious economic problems.

Mayor Albert Boutwell and nine councilmen, confirmed Thursday as the legal government by the Alabama Supreme Court, were hailed by a Negro leader as symbols of a new era.

"The Negro people look to the Boutwell administration for direct progress in the area of race relation," said the Rev. F. L. Shuttlesworth, a key figure in a lengthy desegregation drive which landed about 2,400 Negroes in jail for demonstrations.

"Justice and progress have triumphed," said Shuttlesworth. "Birmingham's image has already improved."

Boutwell and the council took over the government when the court ousted a three-commissioner system dominated by Police Commissioner Eugene Connor, a bitter segregationist who personally directed policemen in handling demonstrations.

The new mayor, considered a moderate, said he would appraise the city's racial problem "and work toward its harmonious solution."

Almost simultaneous with the legal victory for the mayor-council, a Chamber of Commerce committee warned that the city's economy had been severely damaged by racial strife.

"Something must be done," said Caldwell Marks, chairman of an industry-hunting committee. He said prospective industries have refused to consider Birmingham because of the turmoil.

State Unable to Return Ing

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — James Burton Ing, wanted in Little Rock on an Arkansas kidnap charge, won't be returned to the state to face trial until he has served a Nevada prison term, Pros. Atty. John Jernigan said Thursday.

Ing pleaded guilty Wednesday to burglary and assault charges and was sentenced to five years in prison.

He is charged in Arkansas in connection with the abduction of William Bonds, a hospital admissions clerk, in what the FBI termed an attempt to gain access to James Dean Walker, who was recovering from a bullet wound. Walker is held by Pulaski County authorities on a charge of murder in the fatal shooting of a North Little Rock policeman.

Two others are charged in the abduction, Richard T. Lane and his wife, Cecile Mae, both of Reno.

A Chevy II wagon looks this big when you load it up and this big when you gas it up

That, in the eyes of most Chevy II wagon owners, is just about the size of it. A king-size appetite for cargo. But a dainty one for gas. And this, we hardly need add, is just the kind of wagon we planned it to be. Fast and trim as it is on the outside, we want to go on lengths to keep it BIG where a wagon should be BIG. The load platform extends a full nine feet from the back of the front seat to the tip of the lowered tailgate.

And for all the pepper we packed into that 6-cylinder engine (there's also a choice of an even thrifter 4 in most models), we were careful to keep it simple, easy to service—and a real stickler on economy. Feel in a traveling mood? Well—happy coincidence—this is the time of year your Chevrolet dealer feels in his most generous trading mood. Looks like it's high time you two got together.

Bonanza's Adam Will Take Bride

By CYNTHIA LOWRY
AP Television-Radio Writer

NEW YORK (AP) — Some pretty upsetting news has come out of the Old West: Adam Cartwright, the soulful, dark and rather brooding son of the Ponderosa, will take a wife sometime next season.

The marriage has been arranged on a very high level—it was announced by "Bonanza's" producer and NBC—and auditions are in progress to find just the right girl for Adam. But as a veteran viewer, I wouldn't make any bets on Adam's Eve ever reaching the altar.

In the very first place, who ever heard of a married western hero? From the days of William S. Hart and Tom Mix, these brave boys in the big hats have loved their horses, their cattle, their land, justice and underdogs. Although they could get mighty attracted to the local schoolmarm or a neighboring rancher's daughter, when the windup came they'd sadly but bravely climb back on their faithful steeds and go riding off into the setting sun.

Two years ago, a scheme to get a steady girl and perhaps even a wife ultimately for Chuck Connors, the widower of "The Rifleman," just didn't work out. The romance was destroyed by the scriptwriters who felt their typewriters were tied down. So this season they came up with a new girl for him.

Matrimony, as a matter of fact, is stultifying for more than western heroes. Originally lawyer Lawrence Preston of "The Defenders" was supposed to have a wife, but he suddenly became a widower after they shot the pilot film.

DOROTHY DIX

His Love Runs Hot And Cold

By HELEN WORDEN ERSKINE

Dear Helen: My husband's ex-fiancee is the ghost in our home. We have been married two years and have a darling six-month-old baby. No matter where we go or what we do, the other woman always comes between us. She is still unmarried and drives by our home time and again during the day.

Before we married my husband said his love for her was dead and I believed him. We were so happy at first. Our Chicago apartment is near Lake Michigan. We strolled along its shores arm in arm, watching the sunsets, thrilling to the storms and always loving each other.

But after the baby came things changed. My husband's love now runs hot, then cold. When he is in a good mood, he tells me that he loves only me. When he is angry he says he has never loved anyone but that woman, then adds he hates me and continues our marriage only because of our little son.

Last night my husband said I should return to my parents and marry again if possible. If I were to leave I am sure nothing would make him and this sorceress happier, but my parents are already old and I do not wish to be a burden to them. What would you do in my place? — Your Avid Reader.

Dear Avid: Dispel the ghost by making friends with the other woman. Invite her to your home, let her play with the baby. Take her into camp. Such generosity of spirit will not only battle your husband but make him uneasy. If he thinks it indicates you no longer love him, so much the better.

you in charge and forces you to be strong. Only the weak give way to that futile and wretched emotion known as jealousy. As matters now stand, you fear the other woman; fear she will break up your marriage, recapture your husband's heart and drive you out, homeless.

What is fear but weakness, insecurity and doubt? The antidote is action. Get busy. Take charge! Send a stamped, self-addressed envelope for my leaflet, "Keystones of the Home."

Dear Helen: After 13 years of marriage my wife and I are as opposite as the North and South Poles. Reason? I'm still in love with my ex-wife who doesn't love me. By comparison this one is a moron: can't keep house, looks like a tramp and is fuzzy-thinking, but I'm sorry for her. Life with me hasn't been too easy. I'm a semi-invalid though working and no longer young. The future looks so bleak I wonder sometimes if it's worth sticking around to live it — Unhappy Man.

Dear Unhappy Man: Negative thoughts attract negative conditions. Reverse your thinking. Try the positive approach. Life is worth the living. Stop comparing your present wife with your ex.

Bryant Warns of Printing Bid Rules

LITTLE ROCK (AP)—Printing and stationary firms will have a chance to bid on more state jobs this year, but must stick strictly to bid procedure, Secretary of State Kelly Bryant said Thursday.

Bryant, in a meeting with 40 company representatives, said the number of contracts would be upped from 66 to 73 this spring, principally to split some of the larger items and allow smaller firms to bid successfully.

But he announced a series of changes designed to make sure the bidding runs smoothly.

There will be no staggered bids, he said. All bids must be in by 11 a.m. June 21 and will be opened at that time. They will be sorted into groups by contract items and each group will be tabulated separately.

Tabulating will begin on Friday, June 21 and best bids must be announced by June 29, Bryant said.

He invited bidders to be present at any time during the tabulations.

Two years ago a printer hired private detectives to watch the secretary of state's office and a safe in which bids were stored.

Bryant said he did not want a repetition of this incident.

He emphasized that he wanted all bidding procedures understood and that any departure from them would void an offer.

The contracts, which take effect Jan. 1 for two years are awarded by a committee composed of the governor, auditor and treasurer.

The sheriff's department sent Deputy Bob Coker to the scene with a rope and a utility vehicle.

Clock Now Works

PORTSOY, Scotland (AP)—After being silenced for a month, the 70-year-old town clock will start ringing again tonight.

It was hushed because tourists complained it interfered with their sleep, chiming every quarter hour.

Some 1,720 residents—just about the entire population—petitioned the council that they'd become so accustomed to the chiming they couldn't sleep because of the silence.

Negro Wants in Grade School

LITTLE ROCK (AP)—Dr. Jerry D. Jewell, a Negro dentist, has asked the Little Rock School Board to assign his six-year-old son to the first grade in an all-white elementary school next fall.

The request, revealed Thursday, is an apparent effort to break the board's resistance to carrying desegregation to the elementary level.

It was the first formal request received for elementary desegregation since Little Rock schools were integrated in 1957. Elementary school students were involved in the original Little Rock desegregation suit, but the board started integration at the high school level and now has carried it down through the seventh grade.

Jewell, president of the Little Rock branch of the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People, asked that his son, Eldin, be assigned to the Franklin School.

There are two Negro elementary schools and another white school nearer Jewell's home than Franklin, but Jewell noted that attendance areas and proximity of the school are no longer officially regarded by the board in pupil assignment.

The board had a regular meeting scheduled at noon today, but it was not known whether the Jewell application would be discussed.

LITTLE ROCK (AP)—The Little Rock School Board has received its first formal application for a Negro student to enter a segregated elementary school.

Frisco Wants to Abandon Track
POPLAR BLUFF, Mo. (AP)—The St. Louis-San Francisco Railway (Frisco) rested its case Thursday in a hearing on its petition to abandon a 104.5 mile stretch of track in northeast Arkansas and southeast Missouri.

The hearing was expected to be concluded today. Melvin Winslow, Interstate Commerce Commission examiner, said about 120 persons attended the hearing Thursday and that most of the witnesses expressed fear of economic deprivation if the stretch of railway between Poplar Bluff, Mo., and Pochontas, Ark., is abandoned.

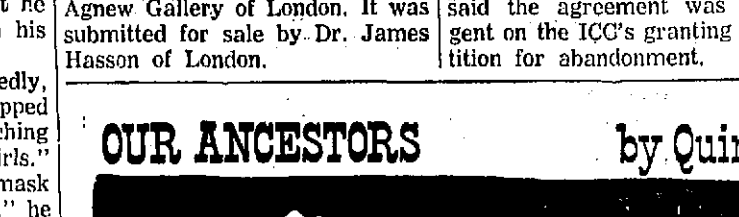

An agreement for the Union Pacific Railroad to take over Frisco's switching operations at Poplar Bluff was announced by H. L. Gassler, vice president. He said the agreement was contingent on the ICC's granting the petition for abandonment.
